RED CROSS WORK IS DESCRIBED

on 12,000-mile Tout of Red Cross Work Abroad.

NEW YORK, May 16 .- A German offensive of terror against the civilian population of France and Italy was described today by Henry P. Davison on his return from a 12,000-mile tour

The outstanding feature of German methods at the present time," he are close upon the heels of the lead-"is the effort to terrorize wom- ers en, children and old men at home bombing, nearly every night, towns behind the lines, with the deliberate and 221; A battery, declared purpose of terrorizing civilians, and breaking down the morale to such a point that they will importune their governments for peace. A summary of some of the Red Cross war relief, described by Mi Davison follows:

In France relief is being extended in 121 cities and towns; in Italy forty five cities and towns with branches in 218 other places.

There are $000 Americans abroad working for the Red Cross. In France organization has thirty-seven warehouses containing more than $7. 000,000 worth of goods.

In France the Red Cross operates fifteen hospitals, in England five, in Italy, two. In addition supplies are furnished to 4361 hospitals in 1509 cities and towns in France and to 465 hospitals in Italy. Ninety-nine Red
